

ALICIA HORMAZA

Alicia Hormaza has worked in the Real Estate Industry in a number of capacities for over a decade.

Alicia has provided executive-level administrative and business accounting support for an international real estate development company; purchased and sold properties as an entrepreneur and as a Realtor representing both Buyers and Sellers; and she has also managed a local construction company. Consistent with her career and life objectives Alicia is not only entrepreneurial, she is a highly focused and disciplined. She has demonstrated solid and varied managerial skills including the design and implementation of process and procedure improvements; and she is also highly accustomed to meeting demanding deadlines in a very insightful fashion. Alicia continues to stay current with ever-changing technology and has a keen eye for details which is visible in all of the work she produces.

Alicia became acquainted with Blackmore Escrow when Blackmore served as an escrow provider to her. Having personally experienced the superior service of Blackmore Escrow and the glaring differences in customer service and standards among escrow providers, Alicia developed a long lasting professional relationship with us.

Gladly, Alicia has now joined Blackmore Escrow as our Marketing Director. Her goal is to help the company continue its mission to remain the most respected escrow provider of choice.
